

Job Posting: Artistic Director, Mann Art Gallery

Embrace this Artistic Leadership Role for a Leading Gallery in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan

The Mann Art Gallery, a beacon of artistic and cultural significance in Prince Albert, seeks an Artistic Director who will co-lead our gallery alongside the Administrative Director, under the governance of our Board of Directors. This role is for those passionate about driving artistic vision and community engagement in a vibrant cultural setting.

Position: Artistic Director

Job type: Contract position, part-time, flexible hours (benefits plan available)

Location: Prince Albert, Saskatchewan

Start Date: January 2024

Closing Date: December 18, 2023

About the Role: As Artistic Director, you will co-lead the gallery's vision and operations, forming part of a shared leadership model. You will collaborate closely with the Administrative Director and engage with a seasoned programming and administrative team. Along with our Board of Directors, and a network of community partners, supporters, and funders you will elevate the gallery's stature and impact.

Key Responsibilities:

- Curate and direct innovative exhibitions and manage the Permanent Collection.
- Play a pivotal role in strategic decision-making in tandem with the Administrative Director and the Board. Including writing grant proposals.
- Engage with community partners to enhance gallery outreach and impact.
- Supervise and mentor a dedicated team, fostering a culture of creativity and excellence.

Qualifications:

- Advanced degree in Fine Arts, Art History, or related fields.
- Demonstrated experience working in an art gallery
- Strong leadership and collaboration skills in a shared governance model.
- Proven experience in building relationships with community partners and funders.
- Criminal record check required for employment.

Shared Leadership and Community Engagement:

- Integral part of a dynamic duo with the Administrative Director, shaping the gallery's future.
- Active participant in Board meetings, offering artistic insights to guide governance decisions.
- Develop and nurture relationships with key community stakeholders, fostering a supportive network for the gallery.

Apply Now: Email your resume, cover letter, and portfolio (if applicable) to board@mannartgallery.ca
Join a team that's passionate about making a difference through art. Only candidates selected for interview will be contacted. Closing date: Dec. 31, 2023.